Sometimes, all it takes is One.

One innovative idea. One inspired person. One dedicated group. One worthy mission infused with hope and executed with precision by thousands of dedicated volunteers.

In 2014, Meals on Wheels was moved by the power of One, both singularly and collectively. Thanks to a united and dedicated board and staff, Meals on Wheels saw a significant increase in revenue and a significant decrease in expenses for the year. Leadership actively searched for new sources of income, developed and adhered to a realistic budget, and worked to develop and forecast future organizational needs.

Our Client and Nutrition Services team continued to provide high quality meals at no charge, as well as actively monitor the wellbeing of our clients.

Our Volunteer Services department continued to recruit, train and communicate with more than 2,400 Meals on Wheels volunteers to ensure that every client received their daily meal on time.

Despite all of our successes, we did face some challenges in 2014. Challenges that we will continue to address in the coming year. Recruiting and retaining enough volunteers to deliver meals every day is an ongoing challenge. Often, we will have as many as 10 open routes a day. We are grateful to many of our volunteers who take multiple routes each week, or have agreed to be substitute drivers as needed.

Another challenge we face is finding appropriate ways to open up our referral process to those who need our services but do not go to the doctor. Currently our clients are referred through health professionals only. One of our organizational goals for 2015 is to open up our referral process and find ways to identify this underserved group in our community.

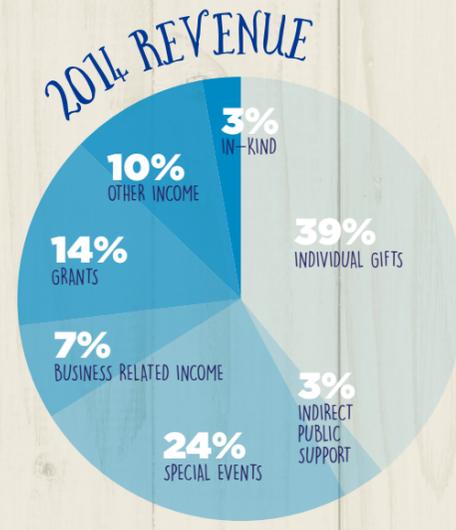

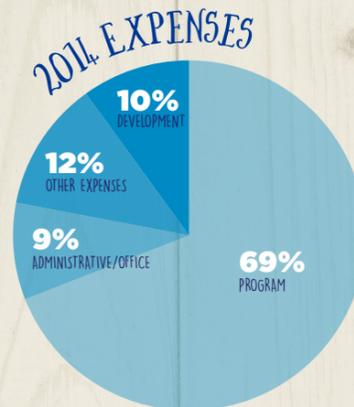

Looking forward, Meals on Wheels will embark on a campaign to do more, serve more and care more in 2015 and beyond. This year, throughout this campaign we will work to identify and serve an additional 250 clients.

As staff, we continue to be inspired and moved by all our clients, volunteers and donors. It is my hope that you have been surprised, inspired and gratified by what you have contributed and accomplished as a member of the Meals on Wheels family in 2014.

For you, we are grateful!

ONE INNOVATIVE IDEA

In 2014, Meals on Wheels of Greenville replaced the apple juice beverage option with a powdered drink mixture that is sugar-free and packed with vitamins and nutrients that better meet our aging client's needs. With 25% of the recommended Daily Value of Calcium as well as 100% of the Daily Value of Vitamin C, we are proud to serve it!

ONE INSPIRED PERSON

For three years now, Rick Morris of the Derrick Foundation donates to Meals on Wheels and keeps it top of mind. In the past, his children delivered as Riverside High School students; currently, his Michelin co-workers deliver on a regular basis; and in the future, his wife Malinda plans to deliver meals when she retires.

"They do a great job of taking care of the homebound and it's a needed service," Rick shares. "I also appreciate that community members are the ones who are doing the work and not the government."

"What an efficient operation Meals on Wheels runs! I've seen no Greenville nonprofit run better."

Bob Hammersla
Dedicated Board Member

"I actually really miss it if I don't come. You get the feeling that Meals on Wheels of Greenville really appreciates you."

Bob Guzzardo
Dedicated Line Volunteer

"I've never met a more committed group of people, who service their clients with such dedication. I'm privileged to be part of it."

Dawn Joachim
Dedicated Pet Food Volunteer

"It's incumbent upon us to give back! A friend who is down on his luck is staying with me. His rent is to deliver meals once a week."

Brian Berni
Dedicated Delivery Volunteer

"I like working along with ALL the Meals on Wheels employees. I get more back from volunteering than I give."

Sue Reindorp
Dedicated Events Committee Volunteer

"I'm volunteering in honor and in memory of my mother. I remember going on a route with her in the summers when I was young."

Jean Harris
Dedicated Greeter

"Delivering is a team-building activity, and over 30 of us participate. We're even getting an additional route!"

Lee Anne Goforth of United Way
Dedicated Corporate Route Partner

GRATEFUL CLIENTS

THE VOLUNTEERS PUT IN THE WORK AND IT ALWAYS PAYS OFF WHEN YOU HAVE SATISFIED CLIENTS!

"They just love to serve people like me. The volunteers are delivering because they WANT to - not because they're obligated!"

Glenn
Client Since 2013

"Some volunteers come in just to hug me. That makes my day! That's why I donate to them. OH YEAH! I donate to Meals on Wheels!"

Fay
Client Since 1995
